

Shadmoor Advisors Appoints Operational Due Diligence Veteran Michelle Perry Amidst Institutional Investor Client Expansion

SOUTHPORT, CT – October 2, 2023 (via Business Wire) – Shadmoor Advisors, a leading operational due diligence (“ODD”) consulting firm for the alternative investment community, today announced the appointment of Michelle Perry as Director, the latest addition to the firm’s 10-member team of experienced professionals, supporting continued growth of clientele, particularly among allocators. Working from Shadmoor’s New York City office, Michelle brings two decades of operational due diligence, risk analysis and team leadership experience from prior roles at Galaxy Digital, Aksia, Santander and Deloitte, including ESG integration, digital assets, regulatory insights, and diverse asset class expertise. “As an entrepreneurial firm approaching 10 years of operating history, we are extremely proud to continue hiring senior ODD talent such as Michelle Perry who bring subject matter expertise to service our growing clientele roster,” commented Michael Merrigan, Shadmoor Founder. “Shadmoor now serves approximately 50 clients in the US, Europe, Asia, and Middle East: sovereign wealth funds, pension plans, endowments, trust companies, family offices, registered investment advisors (RIAs), funds of funds, placement agents and multi-manager hedge funds. In addition, we are experiencing growth from two new sources: providing supplemental in-house resources to our clients and vendor due diligence.”

“I am excited by this opportunity to join and strengthen the Shadmoor team, leveraging my industry experience accumulated since 2002,” noted Michelle Perry, Shadmoor Director. “Shadmoor has done an excellent job meeting the growing demand for ODD as investors look to navigate the business risks of investing, and I am delighted to be a part of its future.”
